

Refund Policy

1. Non-Refundable Fee - After the successful completion of the admission process, a student needs to a non-refundable fee. This fee is not refunded in case the student discontinues the course for any personal reasons like health issues, family problems, or any other personal reasons. It is only refunded in case East Bridge University discontinues the course for some reason.
2. Installment Payment - If a student fails to pay the installment fees within the stipulated time, a grace period of 15 days is given to pay the installment after which the course is discontinued for the student and he/she has to take fresh admission by paying the full course fee. During the 15-day grace period, a student needs to pay a penalty fee along with their balance payments.
3. Cancellation of Registration - Unless on the exceptional grounds, this is not allowed by EBU and, the fees are to be considered non-refundable. However, the decision of the project organizer is to be held final in such cases.
4. Payment - Whenever a student is making any payment, it is essential to certify that all payments are being made from personal funds owned by the student. In the case of a third-party transaction, the student needs to state that he/she is given the authorization to act on behalf of the third party. Also, the student needs to understand that he/she is solely responsible for any damages, bank fees, credit card fees, or penalties that may be associated with the unauthorized use, credit or bank account information transfer or disclosure (e.g., charges related with frozen funds, disputes, reversals, refunds, legal expenses, court fees, or any applicable penalties).
